

Open image.

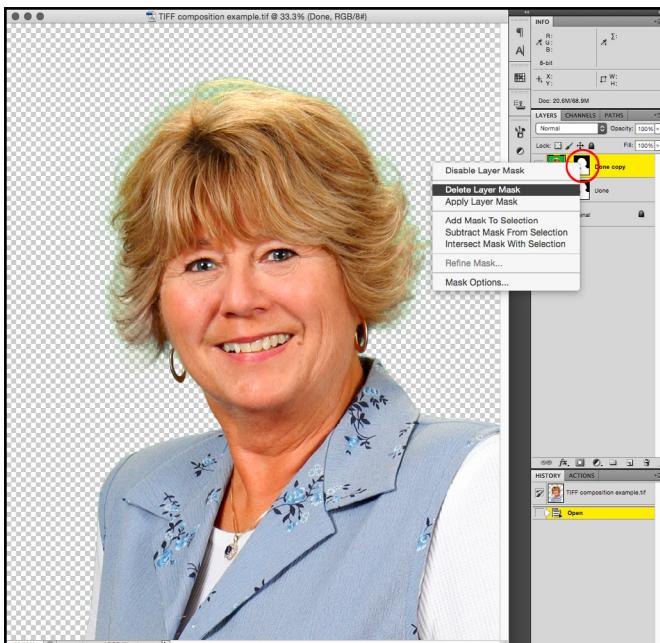

Copy layer
containing a layer mask.

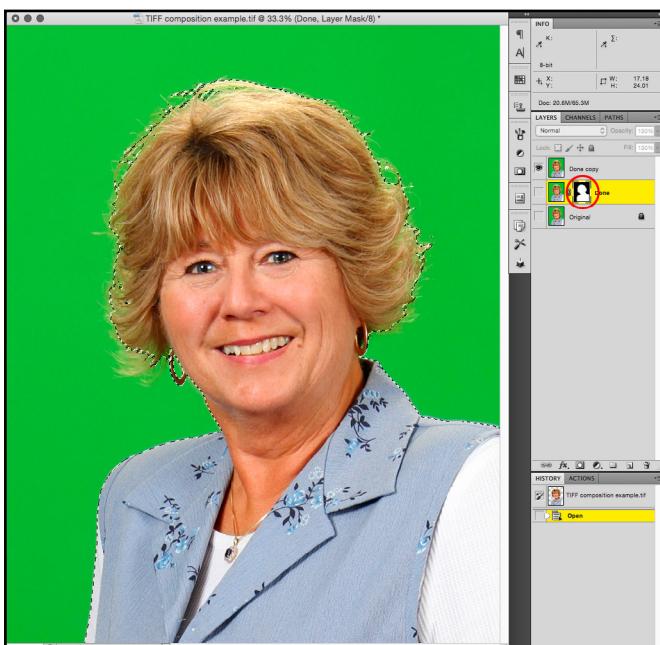

Turn off visibility
in original layer.

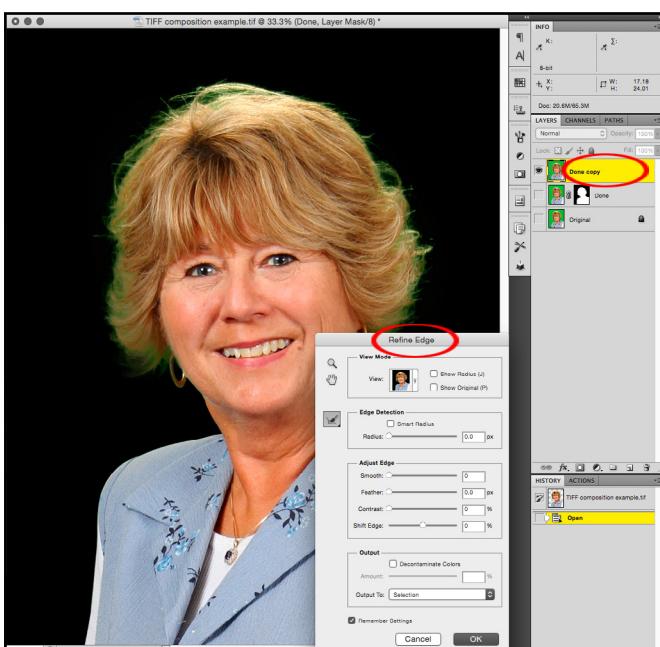

Right-click
on new layers layer mask
and delete layer mask.

Command-click on original layer mask
to make selection from layer mask.

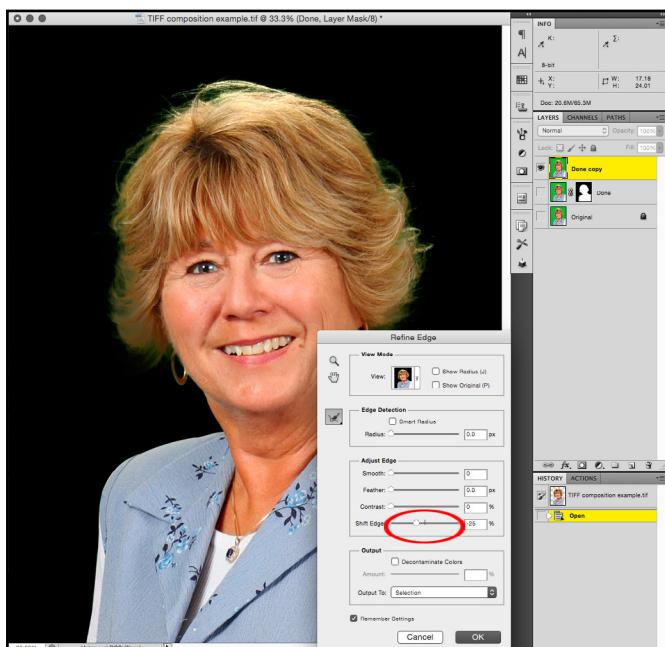

Select new layer.

Choose Refine Edge.

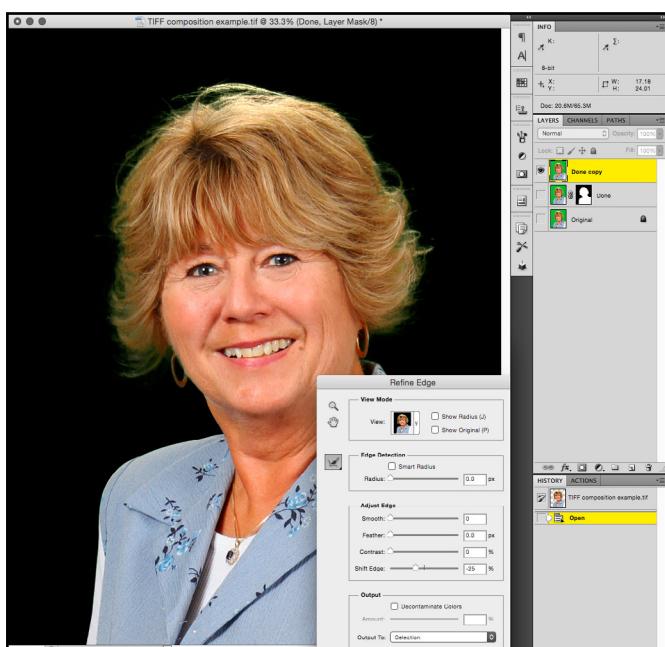

Use the brush tool
within Refine Edge.

Paint around hair only in one sweep for best result.

Toggle Shift Edge
to reduce green spill.

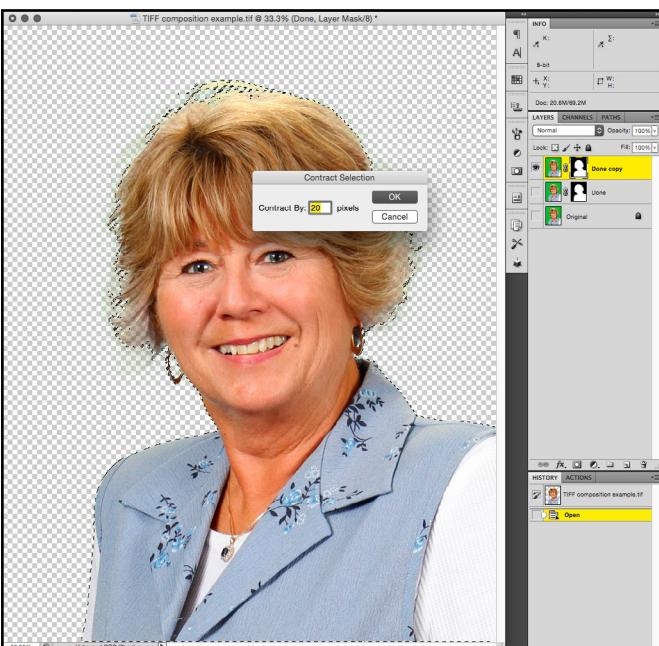

When satisfied
click ok.

Make layer mask
from new selection.

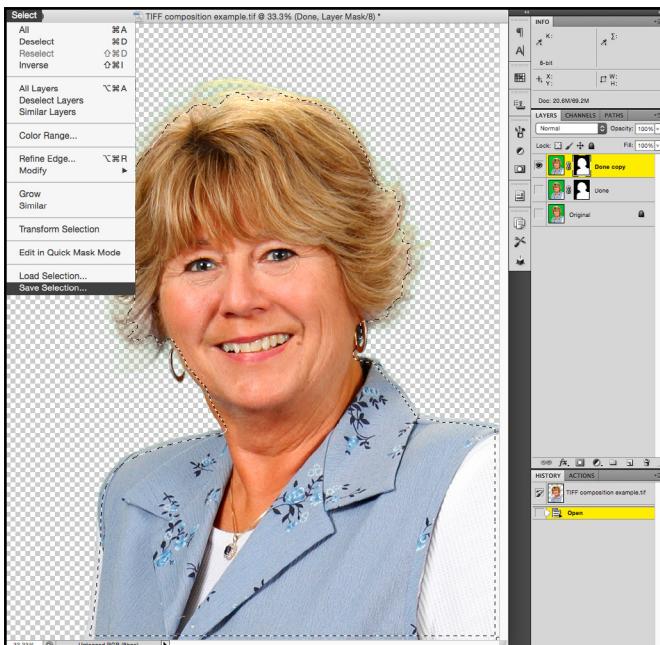

Choose:
Select - Modify - Contract.

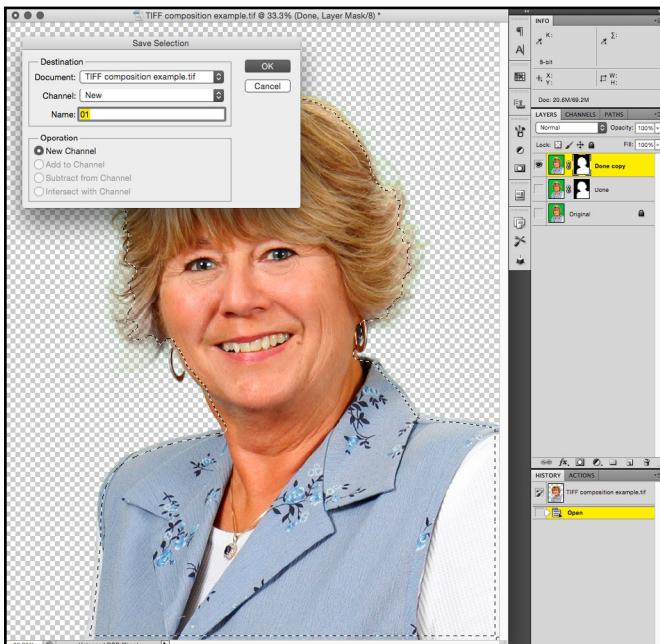

Contract selection
with appropriate amount of pixels.

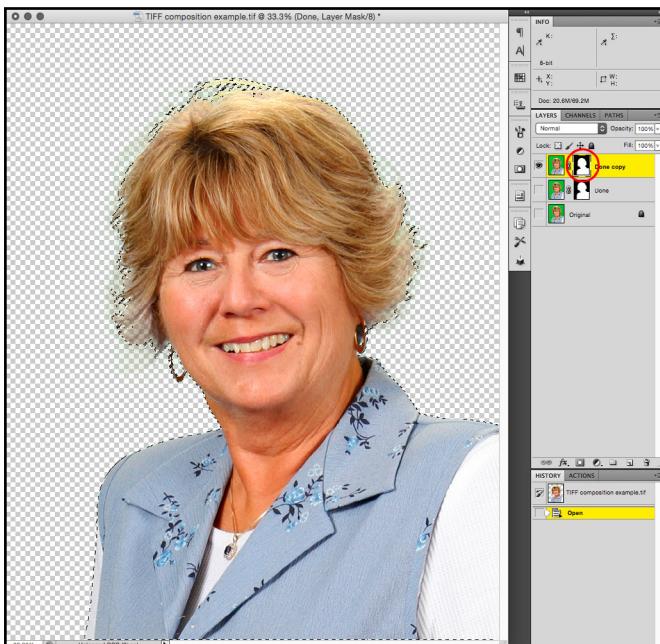

Save this new contracted selection.
Select - Save Selection.

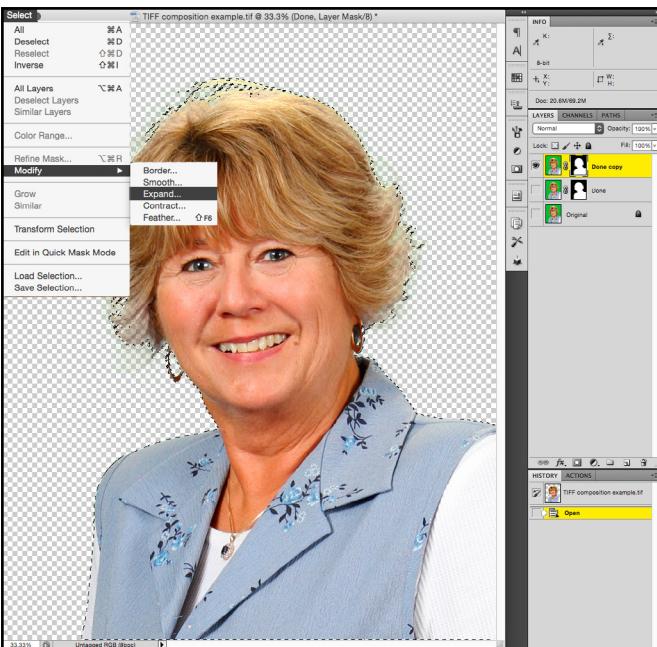

Call the new selection 01.

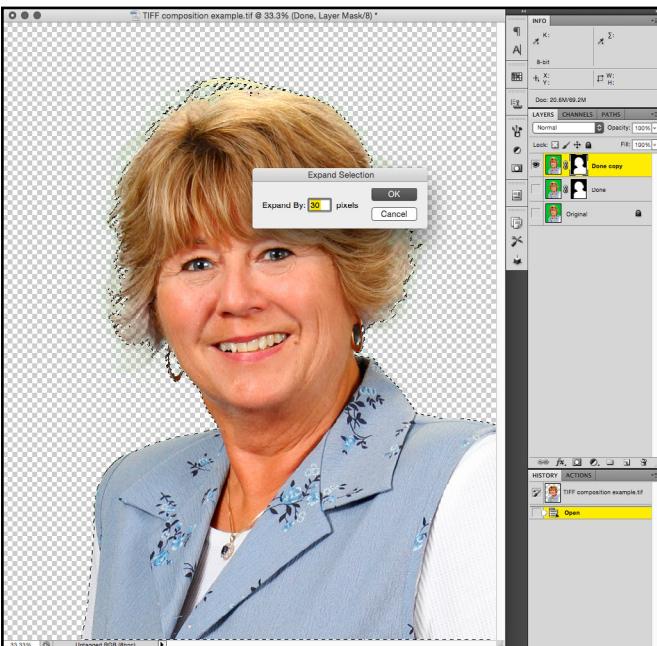

Make selection from copy layer.

Choose:
Select - Modify - Expand.

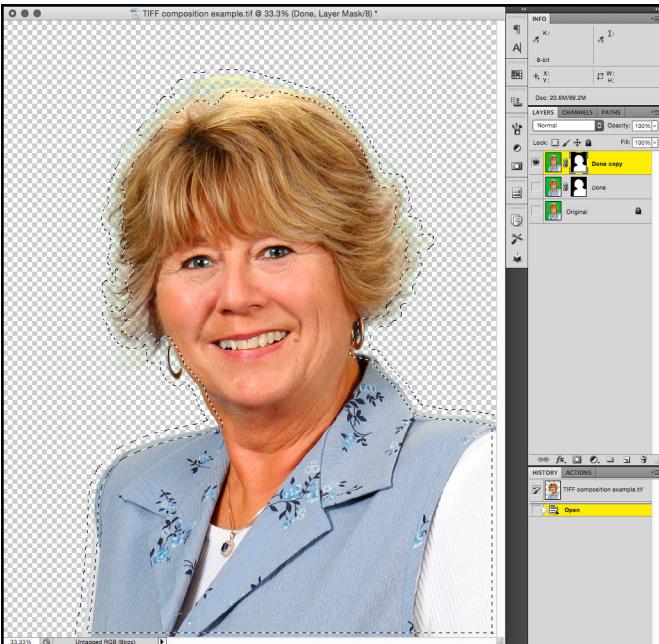

Expand selection
with appropriate amount of pixels.

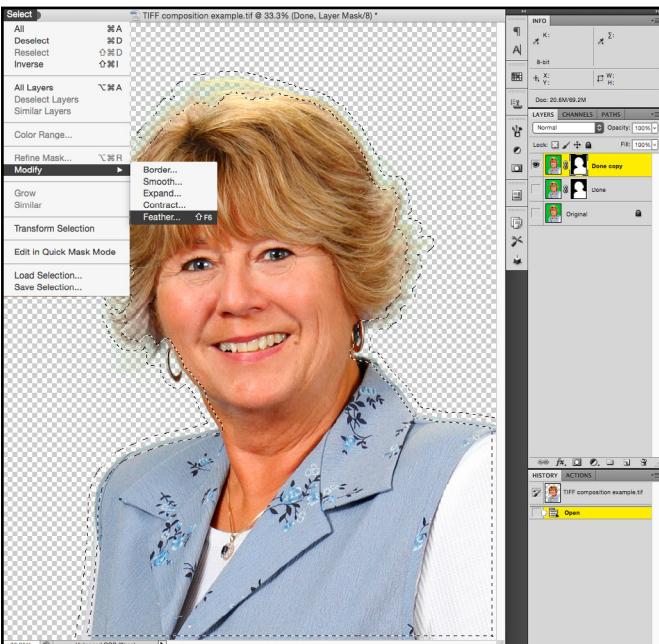

Go to Channels Tab.

Mouse over
new saved selection 01.

Alt. + command - click to subtract selection 01
from expanded selection.

Edges containing remaining green spill is now selected.

Choose:
Select - Modify - Feather.

Feather selection
with appropriate amount of pixels.

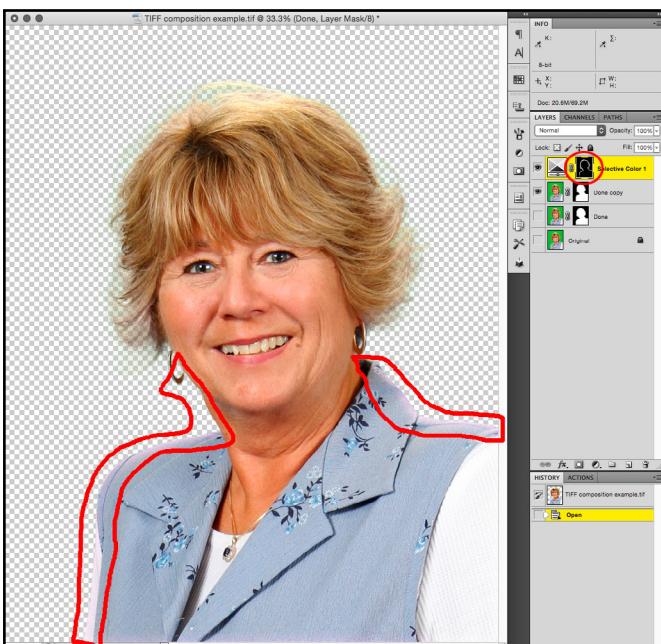

Click Adjustment Tab
And choose Selective Color.

Remove even more green spill by subtracting mainly yellow and green from selective colors.

Primarily subtract from white color
but other colors will work as well.

The new Selective Color layer mask needs adjusting.

The marked red areas
should be subtracted from the layer mask

Click on Selective Color layer mask
(red circle) to activate it.

Paint with black, soft brush on areas unwanted in the layer mask.

Preview of Selective Color layer mask
now shows corrected mask.

- Activate copy layers, layer mask.
- Click on Masks.
- Choose Mask Edge.
- Refine Mask will pop up.
- Now fine tune
Shift Edge and Contrast to remove any remaining green spill.

Click ok
when result is satisfying.

Delete saved selection 01.

Save file.